

Advice For The Class of 2020

It's Time!

With the changes to the exams and score reporting timeline, it is more imperative than ever to make sure that juniors have a sound plan in place for the remainder of this year and through the fall of their senior year. Here are some useful tips and links from Atlas Test Prep in order to help guide you through a successful admissions process.

Advice for Class of 2020

1. Know what scores you will need for your target schools you are interested in for admissions and merit-based scholarship awards.
2. Set attainable goals for the remainder of your junior year and through the fall of your senior year.
3. Plan out your calendar, NOW, and factor school breaks, holidays, family/social events into your prep plan.
4. Plan on preparing for and taking the SAT and/or ACT 2-3 times by the fall of your senior year.
5. Get on campus, explore schools, attend college fairs, talk to current college students and start exploring!

Upcoming Test Dates

ACT: June 8, July 13, September 14, October 26, December 7

SAT: June 1, August 24, October 5, November 2, December 14

*December test dates should be a last resort & be aware of score reporting times

Remember...

There will be setbacks and unexpected distractions, don't let them knock you down! Have a plan in place and adjust accordingly as you maneuver through your senior year. Preparing for college is hard work and involves some frustration and disappointments - Don't let them derail you. Grow into your potential with thoughtful and realistic planning. Remain confident in your long term goals and aspirations- They will develop and form as you work through the fall of your senior year and start the application process. Smile :)
